from Civil War Encampments to authentic period clothing, gifts and souvenirs to the finest attractions, accommodations, dining and ghost tours, Steinwehr Avenue has everything you want. Whether you're shopping for an original piece of historical artwork, or a souvenir T-Shirt, looking for some of Gettysburg's finest dining or simply grabbing some fast food, Steinwehr Avenue has something for every age group and budget. Plus, all of Steinwehr Avenue's shopping, dining, attractions and lodging are within short walking distance of both the Gettysburg National Cemetery and the Gettysburg Battlefield. There is plenty of free parking and public trolley service up and down the avenue to get you anywhere you want to go including the National Park Service Museum and Visitor Center. So, if you're visiting Gettysburg and looking for convenience, selection, affordability and plenty of options for fun and entertainment, then set your sights on Steinwehr Avenue. It's where you want to stay, where you want to shop, where you want to eat. It's where you want to be!
